Photo-Opps

CH-54, "Sky Crane" — Airlifts an F84F "Thunderstreak" from 183rd Tactical Fighter Group Capital Airport Springfield, Illinois to its static display resting spot at Camp Lincoln, Illinois National Guard Headquarters, Springfield, IL.

CIVIL WAR SOLDIERS — Black troops, many of them former slaves, in front of a Beaufort, S.C. mansion abandoned by its Confederate owners. Several Black regiments were raised in the area after its capture by the Union Army in 1862.

SOVIET TERRITORY — Looking past the nose of an Air Guard C-141 from the 172nd Military Airlift Group, the airport tower and two Soviet Aeroflot aircraft are visible in front of the terminal at the airport in Yerevan, Armenia.

Got a good photo you'd like to see shown in "On Guard?"

If so, send it to "On Guard", 4501 Ford Avenue, Alexandria, Va., 22302-1456. Be sure to include your name, address, and your unit as well as a work place number in case we have questions about your photo. We will give you full credit for your photos if they're published. If you want the photos back, be sure to say so.

They're your family,
and they're important...
RIGHT???

So is your membership
in the National Guard

Right, again.

So why take chances
your family will be alright when you're away on Guard business...
even for a short time?

Be certain your family
is properly cared for...
just the way you'd want it.
Make sure you've prepared a WILL and a POWER of ATTORNEY, or that they're up to date.

You owe it to your family
and your own peace of mind.
