Notes:

Source: DCAPEs ; DCAPEs is the AF system of record for deployments and data is extracted from historical and current tables and captures only those deployments on CED orders

"Year Deployed" was determined based on the member's departure date, and the deployment was only counted in that year; i e a deployment that spans two calendar years is only attributed to the early year

For the purposes of this report, a "deployment" consists of a unique airmen fulfilling a unique requirement Thus an airmen who deploys 2 times in a given year will be counted as 2 deployments and 5 airmen deploying to fulfill a single requirement will be counted as 5 deployments

Presence in the CENTCOM AOR was determined by the airmen's TDY Location as indicated in DCAPEs without regard to the OPLAN they may have been supporting

Deployments "in support of OIF/OEF" were determined based on Plan ID (PID) without regard to their TDY location

OEF and OIF numbers for 2006 extrapolated based on CENTCOM direction to move all AEF rotational requirements into the 106 TPFDD :

Joint Taskings is based on Air Force Designated Tasking Type Code (TTC) implemented in DCAPEs release 4020, this includes Worldwide deployments:

TTC B = Unit Requirement; Joint Force/Capabilities Solution for LAD < 1 Oct 2008

TTC F = Unit Requirement; Joint Force/Capabilities Solution for LAD >= 1 Oct 2008

TTC C = Unit Requirement; AD HOC Force Solution for LAD < 1 Oct 2008

TTC H = Unit Requirement; AD HOC Force Solution for LAD >= 1 Oct 2008

TTC D = Unit Requirement; In-Lieu-Of Force Solution for LAD < 1 Oct 2008

TTC J = Unit Requirement; In-Lieu-Of Force Solution for LAD <= 1 Oct 2008

U.S. AIR FORCE

- Issue: What portion of the AF supports COCOM daily ops?
- Total Force (TF): 505.1K
 - 330.0K Active Duty (AD)
 - 175.1K Air Reserve Component (ARC)
- “Organize, Train, & Equip” Foundation: 134.4K (109.1K AD, 25.4K ARC)
- Daily COCOM ops support:
 - “On line”: 216.9K (188.4K AD + 30.6K ARC) Strategic, Forward, & Rotational “On-Call” Forces
 - Surge: 153.8K (84.6K AD + 119.2K ARC)

56% of the Active Duty and 43% of the Total Force – “On line” for CDRs
73% of the Total Force – “Surge” plus “On line” for CDRs

This slide gives you a quick look at our major findings.

Our analysis encompassed the Total force of 505.1K Airmen (330.0K Active Duty and 175.1K ARC).

Volcano Chart: Bottom—Foundation (Broken down on pie chart)

370.6K “on line” and “surge” Airmen (over 73 percent of the force) are supported and maintained in a high state of readiness through the efforts of the remaining 134.4K airmen in our “Organize, Train, and Equip” Foundation. The largest part of this foundation is made up of our Training and Student Force; with smaller pieces performing duties in acquisition, staff and Joint organizations. The “Keep the Lights On” forces are those base level airmen who are not postured for deployment, but who are depended on to keep ACC and AMC bases open during all deployments. We do not shut down bases during deployments and must continue the mission of the base during these deployments. All of these airmen are postured in the AEF TPFDD Library as AX/DX (the portion not in the current block(s)) or not postured at all.

Volcano chart: Center—“On-line” ops support

The analysis demonstrated that 216.9K Airmen are actively supporting CDR operations, some through deployment and posturing for the AEF but many more through strategic missions such as missile duty, strat mobility, and forward presence—on this chart is what Gen Jumper referred to as the “On-Line” Force. Over ½ of our Active Duty Airmen are providing this type of support to the CDRs every day. The airmen in this category are from “strategic” units, coded AP/DP or in the current block(s).

Volcano Chart: Top—“Surge” Capability

In addition, through the readiness maintained by the AEF, every day we maintain a “Surge force” (Volcano chart: top) of another 153.8K Airmen—the majority of this coming from the ARC. All of these airmen are postured in the AEF TPFDD Library as AW/DW (the portion not in the current block(s)).

Bumper Sticker:

On a daily basis, 43% of the Total Force (186.4K AD + 30.5K ARC = 216.9K out of 505.1K Total Force) is engaged in duties directly supporting CCDR operations. For the Active Duty, the percentage is 56% (186.4K On-line out of 330.0K AD). For the ARC, the percentage is 17% (30.5K out of 175.1K).

Over 73 percent (216.9K On line + 153.8K Surge out of 505.1K Total Force) of the Total Force is either "on-line" or prepared and postured for short notice warfight deployments.

In addition, other services refer to their operational force vs. their garrison force (foundation) and measure their deployments only against this operational force. For the AF, the "operational force" is the On line and Surge force defined above. Therefore, on any given day, 216.9K airmen out of a total op force of 370.6K is engaged, therefore our "dwell" is roughly 1 forward and 1 back. Ref AF/XOO (Maj Gen Marne Peterson, mid-2005)
